

Thank you for attending our recent Reconciliation Week panel event.

We've been delighted by the event feedback and we hope that you received some informative takeaways to continue learning from. The video of the event will not be released. Wurundjeri Woi Wurrung Cultural Heritage Aboriginal Corporation Education Unit do not generally release recorded materials. The preference is to engage in person or interactively in real time. This has been a great learning opportunity for us and a reminder of what a privilege it is to be able to listen to the knowledge and experience of Traditional Owners.

As Gary Foley says, "Educate yourself, then educate the people."

We have compiled this short guide to quality resources about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and histories. It is in no way comprehensive but reflects some of the sources Bridge Darebin staff recommend. The purpose of this list is to assist you to educate yourself more about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and histories; there are a few books specifically about allyship also included.
